

VETERINARY SERVICES

Every animal deserves care, and financial constraints shouldn't prevent them from receiving it. There are many low cost spay/neuter, vaccine, and health check programs to make sure your pet gets the care they need.

Vaccine Clinics

Spay & Neuter

Front Street Animal Shelter holds free vaccine and microchip clinics every month!
<https://www.cityofsacramento.gov/community-development/animal-care/general-information>

Low-cost spay and neuter programs for residents.
<https://placerspca.org/>

Bradshaw Animal Shelter hosts VIP Petcare for services.
<https://animalcare.saccounty.gov/#gsc.tab=0>

Discounted services and "We Pay to Spay" sponsorship for certain breeds.
<https://www.sspca.org/>

VIP Petcare is a mobile veterinary services that offers low cost vaccines and health services. Find one near you!
<https://www.vippetcare.com/>

Not sure where to go? This website provides a list of companies for the services you need by location and species https://spaycalifornia.org/spaycalifornia_readfirst.htm

These facilities may also offer veterinary exams, microchips, behavior and training programs and food pantries. Make sure to check them out for more details!